Acalanes Continues to Negotiate for Orinda Site

No commitments have been made and negotiations are still underway between Acalanes Union High School District and the East Bay Municipal Utility District toward acquisition of a site for a future high school in Orinda area, according to school officials.

A 25-acre site at the northeast corner of Orinda Crossroads is under consideration by the high school district which has been negotiating with the Utility District for possible acquisition of the area as a prospective school site.

NO FINAL AGREEMENTS

John S. Longwell, general manager of the Utility District disclosed that meetings were being held with high school district representatives but that no conclusive agreements had been reached regarding the land.

The importance of securing a site for future development as a school plant before available land is sold for other purposes was stressed by Neil Parsons, high school district superintendent. He estimated growth of high school enrollment probably would not reach a point where a new Orinda plant would be necessary for another seven or eight years; but when it was necessary, a site would be available if arranged for now.

ANOTHER SITE PICKED

The last suitable parcel of land available for the purpose south of Walnut Creek is being obtained by the high school district for a second plant. Construction plans for the new school will depend on whether the school enrollment continues to grow or whether it has reached a peak where it will gradually decline to a lower number of enrolled students, according to Parsons.

If growth continues at the present pace, it will be necessary to take action at the Walnut Creek site within the next few years.

Moraga Woodland To Elect Officers

The Moraga Woodlands Associa will hold nominations and election of officers for the new year at the meeting Monday.

The Association was formed to act as a protective agency for tract residents regarding buildings constructed in the area. according to G. S. Culver, president.

Rotary Hears EBMUD Speaker

Frank Eastman of the East Bay Municipal Utility District explained operation of the water company before Orinda Rotary Club members at their luncheon meeting Wednesday.

He gave comprehensive explanation of the source of our water supply and its storage. Eastman pointed out that the distribution system is so arranged that loss of any facility through some circumstance would not be disastrous because of interconnection with the rest of the system to guarantee an uninterrupted continuance of service.

The speaker also gave Rotarians an idea of the growth of the East Bay by quoting statistics from the District records. With growth of the water company progressing gradually and steadily from 1929 to 1940, 520,000 people used 5,000,000 gallons of water a day. With the present population taotal in the neighborhood of 900,000 in the district served by this company, 111,000,000 gallons of water are used a day.

With approximately 200 square miles of territory in the district area, Eastman told Rotarians how the company has learned the wisdom of planning ahead to keep pace with the growth of the East Bay communities.

Orinda Quartets To Sing at Fair

Sewer Company Reports Reasons For Slow Progress

Associated Electrical and Mechanical Company has run into several bottlenecks on sewer installation in LID 10.

Rock where the ditch is to run on San Pablo Dam Road has made a lot of hand digging necessary because of the presence of water lines in the area. Also retarding quick completion is the 570 foot line across the East Bay Municipal Utility District property which must be dug by hand since the Utility Company will not allow the use of machinery because of water lines in the area.

ALMOST COMPLETE

The job on this local improvement district is approximately 95 according to Superintendent Ray percent completed at this time, Butterfield who expects the contract to be completed within about 3 weeks, barring unforseen setbacks.

Three workmen were kept busy until 3 a.m. last Sunday morning when the rainstorm made some of the area a possible hazard to motorists. Mud was cleared from El 8Toyonal and the San Pablo Dam Highway and sand scattered to help prevent the danger of skidding.

PAVING DRIVEWAYS

Butterfield announced that the company"s offer to pave driveways under a separate contract arrangement, as announced in last week's SUN, had met with quick response by 30 residents. The superintendent said more residents were taking advantage of this offer every day.

WORK PROGRESSING

Paving work is progressing on Crescent and North Lane and a number of streets in the district have been completed.

Company spokesmen will contact property owners within the next several weeks concerning installation of house connections, Butterfield said.

Water Tax Rate Cut Promised

A 10-cent reduction in tax rate for the coming fiscal year was promised taxpayers of the Orinda County Water District this week. The new tax rate per $100 assessed valuation for the coming year was set at $0.144 at the last meeting of the board of directors. Last year's rate was $0.249, according to Secretary Mana ger Warren Harrold.

The $.105 reduction was made possible through increase in the local district's assessed valuation and from refunds for new services and similar returns from the East Bay Municipal Utility District which services the area with water, explained Harrold.

Members of the District board of directors are: J. W. Dieterich, president; A. W. Elkinton, Harry W. Oakley, John Stoffell and Frank Delos.

County Asked To Roll Roads

(The following letter is a copy of a letter dated August 27 and sent by Orindans Incorporated to Supervisor Cummings protesting road conditions in the area.)

DEAR MR. CUMMINGS,

First we would like to thank you for the excellent job of paving Overhill Road and other roads in Orinda. Secondly, we would like to call to your attention the fact that the road was not rolled or in any other way finished after being macademized.

After speaking with the Orinda Fire Chief today, it is our understanding that the County no longer plans on rolling the paving jobs. This leaves the roads in a deplorable condition for passenger traffic. The oil and gravel is thrown under the car finish and does material damage, and also sticks to the inside of the fenders to such an extent that it is virtually impossible to clean it off.

We wish that you would immediately take up the matter of rolling the roads right after the paving is done so that this condition will not happen again. The slight additional expense would be more than justified to the taxpayer by eliminating damage done to their cars.

Awaiting your reply, we remain

Sincerely,

ORINDANS INC.
Donal F. Skilling
Secretary-Treasurer.

Outlook on Polio Appears Brighter

Contra Costa County may escape without a polio epidemic this year, according to a report from the County Health Department. As of August 15, three weeks had passed since a case of the disease was reported. Last year at this time the epidemic was just beginning to develop, with seven cases having occurred in the same three weeks period.

Parents should continue precautionary measures for the duration of the hot weather, the report said, but for the time being, at least, things look very hopeful.

Lions Donate Food

Major Ruth Cox of the Salvation Army gave an enlightening talk on the work carried on at Booth Memorial Hospital at the Orinda Lions Club dinner meeting held at the Willows last week.

Club members brought donations of canned goods and many other articles suitable for use at the hospital to the service club meeting to present to Major Cox. Don Hunter was program chairman for the evening.

Plans for the Fall months are underway, according to Carl C. Miller, president, with a barbecue scheduled for September 10. Geo. Hartzell, Sr., is chairman of arrangements for this occasion, with James R. Lucas and Joe Navone named as committee members.

Orinda School Bus Route Criticized By Irate Parents

A protest has risen in at least one section of Orinda concerning the proposed school bus routes which have been announced.

Parents in the De Laveaga properties subdivision, in the general vicinity of Las Piedras and Camer the lack of closer bus stops for ino Del Diablo, are up in arms ovtheir school age children, some of whom must travel eight-tenths of a mile to the nearest stop. With 16 pupils of school age in the area now and about 40 expected to be attending within the next few years, residents feel that the conditions should be remedied at once.

WEATHER HAZARDS

With younger children in many of the families, mothers feel that taking school children to the bus stops in rainy weather and meeting them after school, or allowing smaller children to walk such a distance without being accompanied, is out of the question.

The matter was discussed with Orinda School Board this Spring, according to Mrs. Clarence Wood, one of the many parents who has taken exception to the lack of adequate transportation for school children. At that time, she reports, those who attended were assured that "the matter would be given special attention."

STILL NO CHANGE

An article published in the Oakland Tribune several weeks later said the board had approved the bus route, Mrs. Wood said, but further questioning concerning the proposed routes brought no enlightment. Recent notices sent to parents throughout the Orinda School District designating stops and pick-up hours gave no information of route change.

When questioned, Joseph Sheaff superintendent of schools, is said to have stated Blackwood Transportation, contractors for the bus transportation, had refused to continue the route to that area because of dangerous roads.

INSPECTS OTHER ROUTES

In refuting this, one concerned resident drove over the complete routes in other sections of Orinda served by the bus and contends that their roads are as safe as many of the others, Mrs. Wood said.

Residents claim that they had been assured of adequate bus transportation for their school children when they purchased their property and said at least one family had already moved from the sector because the promise was never kept.

TO CONTACT CUMMINGS

Representatives will contact Supervisor Jack Cummings in an effort to get a satisfactory answer to the problem, and plan to arrange to meet with the supervisor, Blackwell, members of the school boar dand the superintendent, at the board meeting to be held next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Wood stated that there was little sympathy with the proposed new school bond for Orinda District in the area where she lives because of the lack of settlement of this problem.

Public Invited to Board Meeting

Board of Trustees of Orinda Union School District will meet on Tuesday. Any resident interested in coming to the meeting to ask questions concerning the necessity for the new school bond or the use of the money anticipated through the bond issue is welcome, School Superintendent Joseph Sheaff reports.

Horseshows, Fiestas, Fires and Law Were In the SUN Seven Years Ago

BACKTRACKIN' FEELS LIKE A NOVICE at hiking down the trail when we run across items of families like the Castros. The family has lived on the original Castro land grant on San Pablo Creek since way back. . . . And in August of '42, Miss Dorothy Castro was preparing to defend her title in the ladies' stock horse division of Lafayette Horse Show.

President of the Horse Show, George B. Sturgeon, announced that more than 350 horses were entered in the 30 different classes to be shown. A big parade included the 217th Coast Artillery Band.

JUST A SHORT TIME AGO Mrs. Helen Burling University of California home demonstration, retired. But back in September of 1942 she was actively engaged in her educational demonstrations and talks. . . . At the Orchard Road home of Mrs. Clarence Betz, president of Orinda Home Department.

A fire in September could mean the "little red school house" is burnin' . . . Could, but it didn't in September, '42. It was a fire on the Walter Wood estate which destroyed a frame pumphouse. Fire Chief Ed Morrison of Lafayette reported $1,000 damages.

SEE WHERE (in '42 again) Frank L. King was named Lafayette Defense Council Coordinator and Erwin Mattson was chief of Lafayette Air Raid Wardens. Hmmm, also see where Mat, commissioned a Lieutenant J. G. in the Navy, taught boxing and wrestling.

Guess they got tired of the way some fellows hate to stay cooped up . . . even as the birdies in the cage must. Flight from jail was to be a felony, not a little old misdemeanor. D. A. Francis P. Healey said the '42 change should "discourage" flight from the jail farm.

LAFAYETTE'S 9TH ANNUAL FIESTA plans had been completed in August, '42. The event, "staged each year at Lafayette Hall in conjunction with the Horse Show and the under the sponsorship of the Improvement Club," was chairmaned by L. I. McKim. Games chairman R. A. Whittaker said the Fiesta was to be consolidated into "One Big Saturday Night." American Legion was in charge of refreshments.

Refreshments . . . . . it has been a bit hot Backtrackin' this week and think we'll camp here for a spell . . . for refreshments.

Our Horseman's Paradise

Young Horsemen Bemoan Their Fate; Ol' Dumb School Can't Come Too Late

BY ADA M. MORGAN

WITH THE NEW TERM of school in the immediate offing, the moanings and wailings of young riders are pathetic indeed. Listening in on a conversation between a ten- and eleven-year-old, the other day, informed me that both their horses were going to practically grieve themselves into the animal hospital when their young masters could no longer spend long hours every day riding them around these old hills!

"Buck's goin' to think it awfully queer when I get only a measly little ol' minute a day to see him after that dumb ol' school starts." one freckle-face lamented tragically.

"Yeah, ol' dumb school!" the other tortured youngster agreed. Then in heartbroken tones: "My mom says I'll have to do my riding on Saturdays and Sundays instead of even after school. My horse's going to get fat as an ol' cow just laying around doin' nothing but wondering why I'm not taking him out and running him around like he likes to do. Dumb ol' school!"

Ah, the terrible tragedies of the young!

MY GOOD SAMARITANS for this week are Kirby Morgan and Pat Pfieffer. They (and myself, but I hadn't caught up with them when this happened, I'd been held up by equipment repairs on riding gear) were riding their horses from Lafayette to the Concord - Mt. Diablo Trail Ride Grounds last Sunday. Were in quite some hurry, too, as there was a celebration in which they were taking part.

Riding along the canal, they spot a little dog trying vainly to get out of the water. Evidently he had been in a long, long time as he was practically exhausted, very shivery and cold.

In fact everything about him was dampened except his spirit. When the would-be rescuers tried to coax him to within reach, nothing doing! The little guy had no faith in the human race. Exhausted as he was, he swam rapidly away. No amount of soft-soap talk could fool him, neither; not on your tintype! He had had experiences before.

So, down came the trusty lasso-rope off the saddle. Away went the little dog, ducking, dodging, twisting. The rope slipped off him, slid over and around him in the water. Then he got caught. He shot half-through the loop, but it tightened on his hind legs and he was pulled in a most undignified position, up-side-down, to safety on the nice, dry, warm bank.

"Grrrr—woof!" snapped the little guy, shivering, weak and pathetic and ran away from there as fast as he could, very ungraciously, but surely thankful for being saved from a most watery grave.

The rescuers laughed at his manners, climbed back on their horses and went on to finish their own business. They reached the Pow-Wow parade in due time, and Pat won a nice trophy for Best Dressed Cowgirl.

THE JOE HALLETT'S of Mt. Diablo Blvd. are expecting a late colt from their thoroughbred stallion Fire Bull. We hope the blessed event doesn't occur during this weekend to divide Del's and Joe's attention from other important business at hand. Del will be busy as one of the hostesses of the Trail Ride, serving barbecue dinner up on the mountain to very hungry riders and guests, Friday night, and Joe will be particularly busy all four days of the competitive ride as he is judging the junior division.

YVONNE ERWIN, Lafayette, was one of the junior riders participating in the parade group of the junior Trail Riders at the Pow-Wow parade in Concord, last Sunday. This group is practicing to exhibit their precision drill on horseback very soon, now. They have good-looking uniforms of white hats and "chinks," white shirts, colored ties, and levis. They took first award for junior groups in the parade—their first showing as a unit.

Captain Sandford Sez:

4:45 a.m. Sunday saw me off on a yachting-fishing expedition as guest of a Lafayette friend of mine. One of his friends, also a member of the party, had read in the newspaper that the striped bass would literally jump out of the "Big Drink" into your boat at Rodeo; so that was our destination.

WE SET SAIL, I mean, started up the engine, on the estuary at Oakland and so off, with our souls all full of hope. I was at the wheel as we neared the chosen spot and when we had cleared the point, low and behold, I saw a large flotilla of boats . . . all kinds of boats at anchor, fishing. BOATS, BOATS, BOATS and more arriving under forced draught from all points of the compass. Good boats, poor looking boats, ugly boats, beautiful boats, bum boats, in fact, more boats than Carter has pills . . . about one hundred and twenty five thousand, six hundred and twenty-one boats (I didn't count them). You just could not see the water for boats.

The other members of our party were busy with a little job of interior decorating. I suddenly yelled, "Put away the bottle, I mean all hands on deck, tumble up, you lubbers," and so we joined the tremendous flotilla at anchor off Rodeo.

CAN YOU IMAGINE what an intricate network of lines and hooks the poor fish had to contend with? All because some bird wrote in the papers, "Rodeo . . . " I have been fishing for about sixty years and I have caught a few fish in my time, seldom or never where someone told me they were, but always just where I found them. There is much too much regimentation these days, sez I.

A young lady member of our party soon began to feel that the party was not strictly on the level, kind of snap judgment, sez I. On the return journey the wind had piped up into a stiff breeze and our little power yacht began to do its stuff. The young lady by this time felt that the party was not entirely on the "up and up" but was more on the "up and down" with variations.

OUR STOUT LITTLE SHIP would coquettishly hover on the top of a wave and then drunkenly stagger with an easy nonchalance into the trough just as she dipped her bow into it and shoot the spray all over the windshield and us. I could not refrain from bursting into song:

"A life on the ocean wave,
A home on the rolling deep,
Where the scattered waters rave
And the winds their revels keep."

And SO ON INTO THE LEE of Treasure Island and quieter waters. We saw a little sailing boat with red sails, then into the estuary and home, singing, "Red sails in the sunset." Thanks, Mr. Hacker, my genial host on a splendid marine picnic. Good-bye now.

Child Therapy Center Membership Drive to be Stepped Up; Need Funds

The membership campaign being conducted by the Mt. Diablo Child Therapy Center is to be stepped up as a result of a meeting between the Executive Committee and the Fund raising Committee, Nan Wallace, President, announced today.

The two committees explored ways of increasing the membership drive activities. They also laid plans to organize another drive to secure funds needed to erect a Therapy Center building. Many commitments have been received offering labor and materials for the building, but funds will be needed in addition.

The group set September 14 as the date for a general membership meeting at 8 p.m. at the Cafeteria of the Acalanes High School. The general public, as well as the membership, is cordially invited. All membership drive chairmen and workers are urged to be present. It is also hoped that organizations throughout Central Contra Costa will send representatives.

Commitments received from individuals and businesses throughout the area, offering the Therapy Center labor, services and materials, now total 79.

Those wishing to contribute services or materials to the Center are asked to write Mt. Diablo Child Therapy Center, P. O. Box 168, Walnut Creek, or phone: Lafayette 4618, Walnut Creek 3104 or 3364; or Concord 6304.

Von Guenthner, Confer Design Fair Exhibit

The honor of designing and constructing the Contra Costa County exhibit at the 1949 State Fair went to Fred Confer, architect, and Fred von Guenthner and Radonich, contractors.

The county exhibit is constructed almost entirely of redwood, with trellis work and a 28 foot plexboard pylon. Displays will feature the county's agriculture and oil industries on the commercial side, and scenes of family living, including one with the von Guenthner family — Jean, Heidi, Kit and Dirk — from one of the groups.

The interest of the visitor will also be caught by large three foot by four foot photographic murals. Construction records were broken in the building of the exhibit, which was completed in two days. The Fair will be open until September 11, at the Fair Grounds in Sacramento and should prove interesting and educational to many visitors.

Pick Site For J. C. Offices

Contra Costa County Junior College will have an administration building with acquisition last week of a two-story frame building across from Martinez courthouse, Drummond J. McCunn, superintendent has announced.

The site is ideal for administrative offices of the district since it is near all county offices with which the district must have daily contact, according to McCunn.

Purchased from C. A. Ricks, Martinez realtor, for $12,300, the building on the property will be remodeled to provide adequate quarters for the junior college district's administrative staff, McCunn said.

Administrative headquarters are in the James Hotel on Main Street, Martinez, until the new quarters are remodeled.

Blalock Plans Another Trip to Central America

Andy Blalock plans to return to Central America in mid-September where he will continue his hunt for rare birds, take colored photographs with a newly purchased camera and gather material for magazine articles.

Blalock plans to fly to the southern republics accompanied by his mother who has been visiting here from her home in Alabama. The two travelers will stop for several days at a time at various towns and cities on a leisurely vacation jaunt before Mrs. Blalock, Sr. enplanes for Dallas.

INVITED TO RESORT

After departure of his mother for the States, Blalock plans to fly back to Yucatan where he will remain for about a month-and-a-half and then on to Guatemala where he plans to make some business contacts and investigate business projects which have interested him.

Andy has accepted an invitation to stay at the famous "Maylan" resort near Chichen-Itza, about 80 miles from the Yucatan capital of Merida, tendered by the proprietor, a friend of his.

THROCKMORTON ARRIVES

Blalock recently returned from a scientific trip to Alabama where he traversed swamps by foot and on logging trucks in search of rare species of birds. One find, a pileated woodpecker which is the largest of the native species and closely related to a now extinct line, was dubbed "Throckmorton" and brought back from the trip.

Blalock said that Federal and State laws are very strict and special permits are required to keep native birds in captivity.

Family Portrait

FAMILY PORTRAIT PRESENTS another smiling group. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jeffreys, Bonnie Jean and Jerry Lee. (Photo by Victorina Willson)

BY VICTORINA WILLSON

Meet today's featured family—Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jeffreys, Bonnie Jean and Jerry Lee.

The Jeffreys moved to Lafayette three years ago, December 22, 1946, to be exact. The family just had to be "home" for Christmas and thus the move three days before the holidays. They still laugh at the wonderful, confused holidays with guests, children and unpacked furniture all over the house.

MR. JEFFREYS IS OWNER and manager of Idaco Mill and Lumber Company, located in San Francisco. I was curious about the odd name and so he explained that it meant Ideas Incorporated. There are three partners and three companies, the above mentioned, Idaco Engineering and Firestone Lumber Industries. Mr. Jeffreys is active in the Lafayette Dad's Club and is now chairman of the Entertainment Committee, a position he should be able to fill very competently as he was in the theater business for several years as manager of Fox West Coast Theaters in Berkeley and Sacramento. Bonnie Jean and Jerry Lee liked having their dad in the theater business for they got into all the movies free.

Mrs. Jeffreys is a member of the Lafayette Forum and also belongs to P.T.A. She is an avid "salt and pepper shaker" collector and boasts a collection of over 240 pair. The nice thing about it is that each pair represents a happy occasion or a remembrance from a friend.

ATTRACTIVE BONNIE JEAN is entering Acalanes this Fall as a freshman. She says swimming and collecting Walt Disney figurines are two of her favorite hobbies. Smiling Jerry Lee thinks riding horses is the best thing to do with swimming coming in for a poor second. She was about six when she learned to ride and thus considers herself a veteran horsewoman now that she is ten.

As we talked about schools Mr. Jeffreys commented that he married when just 20 and so stopped attending regular school then. But that did not stop his education for by attending night school and doing a lot of self tutoring he not only added to his knowledge for a successful business career but became a registered contractor and registered Civil Engineer. ....

THE JEFFREYS are members of the Crestview Club, which comprises ten families each owning one share of the community swimming pool. The families take care of the pool themselves, other than professional cleaning. The Club itself was formed for the express purpose of building the pool and they are now busy completing bath houses, etc. There are 19 children involved and during the warm summer months they "live" there.

I'm Frank...

WHEN I SAY I don't want to lose any customers. Perhaps it would be better if I said I don't want to lose any friends. Since all of our customers are friends, it adds up to the same thing. What brought this up, you say? Labor Day weekend.

Last year there were 32,000 Americans killed in traffic accidents and don't think for one minute that California didn't contribute her share. Did you know that there is a smash-up every minute of the day in which someone is injured?

OF COURSE, if you're like I am, you probably think accidents always happen to someone else. Not so, friend, not so. No one is immune. And you don't have to be in a car either. A third of the accidents in which victims are killed are between vehicles and pedestrians.

Last year there were 27 pedestrians killed each day and three fourths of them were violating a traffic law or committing an unsafe act. I don't have to tell you that the Labor Day toll is usually great so be extra cautious this weekend. We like to make new customers but we hate to lose old friends. Take it easy!

HERE IS A HAPPY thought. If you insist on being careless, we have the finest taxidermist in the country right here in Orinda — Bob Nordquist. Boy, can I see me smiling down at Pete and Wil from the mantlepiece . . . yipe!

Brother Nordquist brought in a 4 point Orinda Sheep the other day and weighed it on our new famous nail scales. That boy can really do a job. For that life-like expression — see our own Bob Nordquist. He makes animals talk.

ALMOST HAD APOPLEXY the other day when Bob MacFarland asked to use the phone. Using the phone didn't bother me one bit but when he said, in a loud, enthusiastic voice, "Hello, New York?" that's when beads of perspiration the size of quail eggs rolled off my spacious forehead.

It wasn't until I got the phone bill today that I learned he was only kidding. (Just overlook that ten bucks, listed under communication, on your current statement, Bob.)

REMEMBER a couple of weeks ago we mentioned Boysen Colorizer Paints? We weren't kidding when we said it is the greatest paint discovery in 25 years. There are 1322 colors . . . colors to match and harmonize with anything, in any finish, in any quantity.

And the best part is that there's no waiting. You pick your color from a dry actual-paint sample and you can match it again at any time. It is simple, fast, foolproof and as inexpensive as regular paint. In fact, at no extra cost, we'll show you how to make white paint out of red and green magical color.

YOU SEE, the color is packaged separately in a tube with the right amount needed to tint the can of base paint to get the exact color you've chosen in the color catalog. And remember, there are 1322 colors in Boysen Colorizer Paints.

We had real good news the other day when Mrs. Eades came in and told us about her new grandson. Yessirree, the Bill Brocks now have a son to go with those three lovely daughters.

BILL BROUGHT A CIGAR in a little later but I don't smoke. Tried to sell him some fishing equipment for the young son but no go. Maybe next year.

Incidentally, if you're interested in fishing or hunting equipment, we probably have just the item. We have everything but the dogs.

DON'T FORGET, we not only deliver, we like to deliver. Just call Orinda 2585 — that's the Orinda Hardware Store, and if a voice says, "I'm Frank, well —

...I'm Frank

Student Exchange Plan Sought By Junior College

Contracts for Contra Costa County students to attend junior colleges outside the county are being sought through negotiations with the junior college districts throughout California, Drummond J. McCunn, junior college superintendent, revealed last week.

If agreements with other districts are worked out, students of the county will be permitted to attend outside junior colleges without cost. With establishment of its regular courses, this county will accept students from other counties on an exchange basis, according to McCunn.

COUNTER PAID FEE

Students from Contra Costa attended junior collegs outside the present district and the county paid a tuition fee to the institution, until establishment of the county junior college district early this year.

Expressing belief that such agreements permitting students to attend classes in most districts would be reached without cost to the local district, McCunn said the district would be assessed tuition fees in some instances.

TO RENT CLASSROOMS

First Contra Costa Junior College classes are planned for this Fall, the district directors have announced, with classroom facilities to be rented at various places in the county.

All students planning to attend junior college must obtain permission from the district before enrolling for the Fall semester. Last year, such permission was obtained from the county superintendent of schools.

Temporary offices for the junior college district are located at the superintendent of schools' office in the Martinez courthouse.

State Aid to Vets Told in Report

The State of California assisted 3,835 World War II veterans to the tune of $923,423 to carry on their education during the Spring semester and quarter of this year, figures issued by the State Department of Veterans Affairs showed.

Aid was in the form of payment for tuition, books and supplies and a $40 monthly subsistence allowance. The veterans receiving this aid through the California Veterans Educational Institute were registered at 175 schools in 31 counties.

Largest C.V.E.I. enrollment on any single campus was 532 at the University of California at Berkeley with $122,651.56 estimated cost.

ALASKAN CRUISE

Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes have returned from a cruise to Alaska. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. O. Ligon of Oakland. On the same boat were Miss Iva Mitchell and Etta Rodgers. The group reports a wonderful trip in undescribable scenery.

County Fair to Emphasize Youth

Plans for the Ninth Annual Contra Costa Fair to be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, September 16, 17 and 18 at the new County Fair Grounds at Antioch, were announced today by Elwood O. Mitchell of Martinez, President of the 23rd District Agricultural Association of California.

The gala affair—with this year's emphasis on youth—promises to be one of the biggest ever held in the nine years of State sponsorship from funds provided by California's pari-mutuel wagering assessments.

OTHER EXHIBITS

Industries of the county will be well represented — agriculture, floriculture, horticulture, livestock, manufacturing and others. $32,000 in Premium Awards, including "Junior Awards," will be distributed.

One of the biggest events of the Fair will be the Horseshow, with all classes entered to date—Harness, Saddle and Draft Team.

TALENT CONTEST

A three-night Amateur Talent Contest, with Friday and Saturday night semi-annual winners competing in the Sunday night finals, will be held.

Dancing will take place each night on the new dance floor with music on Saturday night by Eddie Fitzpatrick—famous for his Hotel St. Francis broadcasting—and his orchestra, who will come direct from the Cocoanut Grove in the Ambassador Hotel, Los Angeles.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Man" is the subject of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday, September 4, with the Golden Text taken from Job: "There is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding" (32:8).

The following citations are among those comprising the sermon:

The Bible: "When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory" (Colossians 3:4).

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "In Colossians (iii. 4) Paul writes: 'When Christ, who is our life, shall appear (be manifested), then shall ye also appear (be manifested) with him in glory.' When spiritual being is understood in all its perfection, continuity, and might, then shall man be found in God's image. The absolute meaning of the apostolic words is this: Then shall man be found, in His likeness, perfect as the Father, indestructible in Life, 'hid with Christ in God,'—with Truth in divine Love, where human sense hath not seenman"(p.325).

Women's Guild Board Meets At Mrs. Motts

At the Women's Guild board meeting held August 25 at the home of Mrs. William Penn Mott a Chinese luncheon was served.

During the meeting Mrs. Mary Loveland displayed the beautiful and useful handmade articles the evening section members have made for the Silver Tea and Bazaar to be held November 8. These included stuffed animals, Christmas stockings, place mats, unusual aprons and felt bags and pocket books. The September meeting of the afternoon section of the Women's Guild will be at the home of Mrs. F. Ray Devin, 28 Crest View Drive, Tuesday at twelve noon. Members and friends will bring as usual a sandwich. Coffee or tea and a dessert will be served by the hostess. The speaker for the program will be Mrs. Ernest Jackson who is the leader of the book section of the Berkeley City Club. She will give a brief on some of the recent books.

Letters to the Editor

EDITOR:

This letter is written in reply to the one Jeannette N. Millman wrote to the Rounder and which you published in the August 26, 1949, issue of the Orinda Sun.

The Orinda telephone directory includes Charles Hill area, Hidden Valley area, Upper Happy Valley area and all Acalanes Road and subdivision tracts. If the names of the people living in these areas are eliminated from the Orinda telephone directory it will make a very material reduction in the total of 1250 persons receiving garbage service as calculated by Mrs. Millman.

My minimum charge for service once each week is $1.00 per month. Some customers are charged more for various reasons among which are more frequent service, difficulty of approach from a county or main road, etc. This makes the average charge much less than $1.75 per month as Mrs. Millman calculated in her letter to you.

In March 1940 I came to Orinda and started my service with a pickup truck. My gross income for a number of months amounted to only $39.00 per month. Since then I have acquired two one and one-half ton dump trucks and an employee, as I myself still work a regular route.

Mrs. Millman failed to mention the expense in connectin with operating my service. In addition to labor, ..taxes, ..insurance, ..garage rental repairs to equipment and the many other expenses in connection with operating a business, it is also necessary to have some place to dispose of garbage after I have collected it. With the thought in mind of keeping Orinda clean, I secured a site in Martinez for my garbage disposal fill. Taking the garbage there each day and disposing of it is no little chore in itself.

Since I have been operating in Orinda I have found from experience that the earlier I get started on a route in the morning, the less heat I run into during the summer and fall months in the course of servicing the route.

While 5:00 in the morning may seem very early, Mrs. Millman will find, I believe that garbage collectors in Berkeley, Oakland, San Francisco, etc., start their routes as early as 2:30 in the morning.

Another reason that I get an earlier start in the area where she resides is because it is particularly hilly and my truck performs better when it is not overheated. Since the sanitary district has begun installing the sewers in Orinda, I have made a special point of starting earlier than usual so that persons in the area affected by torn up streets and closed roads will receive the garbage service as usual. It may be necessary to call at Mrs. Millman's at 4:00 instead of 5:00 when her road is torn up and closed because of sewer installations.

While I have no proof of free garbage service in Minnesota and Illinois, such services are usually paid for indirectly ..by ..taxation, rental increases or some other indirect method of paying for this service, because I have yet to find something for nothing. Of course I could be wrong.

I will appreciate your printing this letter in the Orinda Sun, as I feel my many customers are entitled to know the facts regarding the manner in which I operate my business.

Very truly yours,

JOE NAVONE, Owner
Orinda Garbage Disposal Service
126 Canon Drive
Orinda, California

Family Reunion Held At Hickok's Home

The George Hickok's home on El Toyonal was the scene Sunday night of the family's first real reunion in many years. The occasion for the get-together was the birthday of their son-in-law, Mitchell and his twin brother Lynn. Present were Mrs. Alma Farrar, the mother; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Farrar, and their three sons Michael, Christopher and Paul, from Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Farrar, from San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Griffith and their two sons Owen and Tom, from Walnut Creek; and Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell L. Farrar who are visiting the Hickoks until they find a place in Berkeley.

Mrs. Lynn Farrar is a war bride. She met her husband in Germany, where she was doing government work. And they were married there, returning to this country last fall.

The masculine members of the Farrar family speak of themselves as the "Farrar Baseball Team"; fathers and sons together add up to the impressive total of nine.

We'll Have to be Frank; We Printed Wrong No.

Nothing like being frank and admitting we made a mistake in last week's I'm Frank column.

The telephone number didn't come out like it was supposed to. Now we'll try again with one big special effort . . . ORINDA 2585 is the number you call to get Orinda Hardware . . . the only hardware store in Orinda with singing deliveries AND the only hardware store with that telephone number . . . Orinda 2585.

Blalock Describes Bird Hobby

About 40 Seafarers and their friends enjoyed the barbecue and pot-luck dinner last Friday evening at the Anthony Blalock home in Danville.

The tables were spread on the lawn under huge walnut trees. The formal meeting after the dinner was also held outdoors as the evening was warm and without wind.

The group enjoyed Andy Blalock's talk on birds. His hobby is the rearing and care of birds in aviaries. His birds are kept in aviaries much like their native surroundings. When fed the food they require, they live longer than birds that have their freedom, Blalock says. Wild birds have so many enemies that a great deal of their energy is spent trying to escape. Aviculturists believe that their hobby could have saved the beautiful North American wild pigeon from extinction.

Blalock explained that he gets his birds just after they have learned to eat and before they rave acquired a fear of man. He has taken many nest seeking jaunts not only in California, but to the southern states, Mexico. Next month he will go to Guatemala. He has the distinction of having the only pigmy nuthatch in captivity. This he got with a great deal of difficulty from its nest in a Lassen county forest. The food for this and other birds is extract of liver, dried fruit, flies and carrots. Some of his birds are fed mixtures of pablum, dried grasshoppers and ant eggs besides vegetables and fruits. Others require chicken legs with some of the feathers left on.

Orinda Library Gets More Books

The pre-school child will find 23 new and colorful picture books in the August shipment to the Orinda Branch Library.

There is also a new copy of Munro Leaf's "HOW TO BEHAVE AND WHY" which the youngsters will love for the cartoon-like pictures and the parents for the ideas they hope their child will assimilate.

BUSY CHILDREN

"WHAT TO DO NOW" by Tina Lee is filled with ideas for keeping the small child contented and busy. This book is only one of the many of this type that the library has to help the parents who for one reason or another, have to keep children in the house or in bed.

"EXPERIMENTS WITH ELECTRICITY" by Beeler will undoubtedly be as popular with the boys as "FUN WITH CHEMISTRY" by Freeman.

FOR OLDER BOYS

In the story field there are some good titles for the older boys: "PLAYER-MANAGER" by Bowen who writes of sports; "BUSH HOLIDAY" by Fennimore who writes of an American boy's dramatic adventures in Australia; "MIDNIGHT, A COW PONY" by Meek, and "HANDY OF THE TRIPLE S" by Eames. For the younger boys there are several new titles including a new story about "ROBIN HOOD'S ARROW" by Stone.

Teen and near teen age girls should find two new books to their liking. They are "DESIGN FOR ANN" by Geis and "PAINTBOX SUMMER" by Cavanna. This last book is illustrated by the famous Peter Hunt—and if the girls like this book they may ask Mrs. Dawson for "GOING ON SIXTEEN" and "A GIRL CAN DREAM" by the same author. These titles will be sent from the County Library office in Martinez upon request.

BOOKS FOR ALL

Younger girls have as new books "A SUNDAE FOR JUDY" by Friedman and "THE JENNIFER WISH" by Smith. These titles and many more should be good reading for the last short days of summer.

Headlining new books for grown-ups is Billie Burke's entertaining, charming and somewhat wistful reminiscences entitled "WITH A FEATHER ON MY NOSE." On the practical side are "THE TOASTMASTER'S GUIDE" a boon to speech makers, by Guy L. Sumner, C. I. Jacobson's advice to the amateur photographer, "ENLARGING," and Ray Haines' "THE HOME CRAFTS HANDBOOK," which tells how to do practically everything.

All Around Orinda

WITH THE ROUNDER

ODDS AND ENDS AND ORINDANS::

Bob Leland swore up and down a few months ago that he was going to remain a bachelor. Told the Rounder that once was enough. Underestimated the power of a woman. Is now happly married, since last week, to former Dorothy Degroat.

And Dick Boucher (it's still boo-shay) bought himself a diamond ring some weeks ago, hoping for the best. And the best happened when Marra Nelle Brown said yes.

SPEAKING OF DICK REMINDS US of the time they had the other early morning at the firehouse. An alarm came in in the wee small hours and two sleepy people leaped out of bed, started scrambling into their clothes. All went well until they both tried to put a foot in the same boot . . . an utter impossibility. Finally figured it out and went sailing off in record time — to put out a cigarette some one left in the front seat of his car.

One of the only persons in Orinda who can build a fire on his roof and not have the arson squad on his neck is Carr Jones. Not only has a wonderful barbecue pit on the roof, but a well mowed lawn as well.

THE TARA BROOK SECTION was all aflutter the other evening. Orinda's nocturnal wanderer was supposed to have turned up there. Scared the daylights out of a lady and her children who thought they heard rustling around in the bushes outside. They promptly reported a prowler. The law arrived but could find nary a sign of an unwelcome visitor. Waited around a few minutes at the lady's request while she dressed herself and the kiddies, went home to mother in Piedmont.

All of which makes the Rounder think that if half the prowlers reported around Orinda recently actually existed, half of Oakland must be out here in the evenng looking around.

MRS. CLARENCE L. WOOD of 13 Los Piedras is very unhappy about the school bus service she isn't going to get. Blackwood Transportation apparently thinks the road isn't exactly the safest one in the world to drive over, so they aren't going to extend their run any further than it is at present. Which means that some of the school children are going to have to walk nearly a mile before they can board the bus for school.

And a mile hike in Orinda's rain and mud, even for a stalwart grammar school kid, isn't the most pleasant thing to be doing on a cold early morning. That's why Mrs. Wood is highly perturbed. And the Rounder would be too if it was he who had to do the walking. Come on Blackwood — give the kids a break — or a lift.

THAT LITTLE ITEM we had about Frank Delos' and Jack Snow's garbage cans has developed into a hefty peeve in some quarters. One thing we enjoyed about it though. We discover, rather gleefully, that all of Orinda's garbage gets dumped — in the county seat, Martinez.

OUR WINCHESTER HOUSE COMPETITION slowed down to a walk of late, but has taken a sudden surge recently at the Casa. In fact Jack has added so many doggoned items to his establishment that we expect any day now to see a new sign announcing "Jack Snow's Eatery, Drinkery, and Trading Post." Has a huge collection of Spanish bridles, bits, and what have you, dangling from the ceiling.

And that ox yoke, converted into a lighting fixture and hanging over the bar, came across country with the Donner Party and was found up around Donner Pass. That's a good story all right — and we think Jack's stuck with it. Or is it Bill Gordon?

ORINDA'S CATS AND DOGS are just as smart as people, we contend. If they happen to miss a meal or want a snack in the middle of the day, they invariably make a beeline for either the Village Bakery or the Village Kitchen.

It's an unusual day when there aren't several scrawny critters sitting on the doorsteps down there waiting for their handout. Gotten to the point where Orindan's who discover their pets have become misplaced almost always pick up the phone, call the delicatessen, and inquire "Angie, is Rover down there?"

THE ROUNDER HAS FOLLOWED with interest the photos and stories that Victorina Willson has been contributing to the Sun called "Family Portrait." And not to be outdone, we rounded up one of our own.

We haven't even met them yet, but we can't help thinking they must be a pretty fine young couple. We're talking about Chenault and Molly Hecht and their Nipper, a husky 16-month old guy with a schlizie haircut.

Chenault's dad owns an investment security company in L.A. and Molly's father is president of a Portland bank. And what makes it interesting to the Rounder is t he fact that the young Hechts decided to heck with trading on their father's name and came to Orinda to make a name for themselves.

Chenault was with the Straw-Hatters last year and opened with them this year. And a tip to prexy Betz — he would like to join the Dramateurs.

LAST MINUTE FLASH: Some scoundrel absconded Wednesday night with Lila Murphy's burglar alarm. Swiped her cowbell right off the front gate. Anyone have a large and unfriendly dog she can borrow for a while?

Dentist Opens Office in Orinda

New residents and a new business arrived recently in Orinda when Dr. James Carroll Wasley announced the opening of his office for the practice of dentistry in the Vashell Building on Moraga Highway.

Dr. and Mrs. Wasley moved here from Tracy and live at present on El Gavilan.

A graduate of the University of California school of dentistry, class of '45, Dr. Wasley spent two years in the Navy. One year was spent in Japan before he was discharged. For the past two years he has been practicing dentistry in Tracy.
